DEMETRIA'S SELECTIONS

CHAMPAGNE!

Pinot Noir, Marie Courtin 'Résonance' Blanc de Noir Extra Brut, Champagne 2018 .. 160

You do not need a celebration to drink Champagne, but you cannot celebrate without it! Dominique Moreau established her estate in 2006 in the village of Polisot, and named it for her grandmother. She set out to make single-vineyard, single-variety, single-vintage Champagnes from Biodynamically-grown grapes that are farmed with meticulous care, something we highlight throughout all of wine programs within Rustic Canyon. After two very difficult vintages in Champagne, 2018 was generous in both quality and quantity and delivered perfectly ripened Pinot Noir. The wines from Marie Courtin's production are incredibly limited, but we are lucky and excited to pour wines from an amazing producer whose reputation continues to skyrocket.

WHITE!

Chenin Blanc, Domaine Aux Moines Savennières-Roche Aux Moines, France 2019 .. 115

Although the estate was founded in 1981, it was discovered that the vineyards were once tended by monks ("moines" in French) during the middle ages, and are now run by a mother and daughter Monique and Tessa Laroche. One of my favorite varietals that you will see showcased throughout the list for the very reason I love it: it can be vinified sweet, dry, still, and sparkling. This specific cuvée highlights dry chenin's intensity with a nuttiness, weight, texture, and slight spice. A wine you can age long term, but is also drinking incredibly beautifully now. Perfect bottle for the middle of your meal as it will pair with a variety of dishes on the menu, but doesn't need to be accompanied by food in the slightest to sing.

RED!

Nebbiolo, Francesco Rinaldi 'Brunate' Barolo, Italy 2015 .. 160

Francesco Rinaldi is based in three of Barolo's eleven villages that are known for some of the best expressions of Nebbiolo. The winery was created in 1870 but the wines were not bottled under their family name Rinaldi until 1906 and are in their fifth generation of family winemakers. Although 2015 made for a challenging vintage in Barolo with its hot summer days but has been regarded as one of the best vintages since 2010. Not only is this wine an exceptional value with 8 years of age, but an example of one of the things I love most about wine: the history of family, land and terroir.
